INDEX TO VOLUME VIII

Administrative Problems of Business Education. By William R. Odell, 212.
Admission to Dartmouth College. By E. Gordon Hill, 139.
Adolescent Environment, The. By E. C. Cline, 374.
Agnew, Peter L. Modern Office Practice, 206.
Alderton, Cora C. A Coöperative Project, 370.
All-Year School, The. By H. R. Vanderslice, 294.
Allen, Charles F. Editorial, 515.
Allen, Richard D. The Program of Measurement in the Secondary Schools of Providence, 326.
—— ——. Work of the Class Counsellor, 12.
Assignments, The Evaluation of. By Charles W. Knudsen and C. Currien Smith, 394.
Athlete, I Am an. By Kenneth Brosne, 133.
Athletic Program, Adjusting the High-School. By J. D. Hull, 540.

Beatty, Willard W., and Funk, Margaret S. Relating Sex to Life, 235.
Bill, E. Gordon. Admission to Dartmouth College, 139.
Bills, Goldena, and Halter, Helen. Social Science and Mathematics Get Together, 110.
Bjarnason, Lofter. Character Training in Junior High School, 167
Bonus Expeditionary Forces. By Eber Jeffrey, 78.
Book Reviews, 59, 127, 188, 252, 316, 383, 446, 509, 565.
Boynton, Paul L. Guidance—a Science or a Philosophy? 517.
Brewington, Ann. Business Education Based on the Social Concepts of Money, 197.
Briggs, Thomas H. What is a Good Secondary School? 454.
Broady, Knute O. A Curriculum for the Three-Teacher, Six-Year High School, 486.
Brosne, Kenneth. I Am an Athlete, 133.
Bruce, G. V. Energy: Hope of a Cultural Democracy, 82.
Brumbaugh, A. J. Guidance in the Junior College, 36.
Buck, J. L. B. Enlarging the Program of Studies in Small High Schools, 503.
Burkhard, Russell V. School Radio, 543.
Business Education: Business Education Based on the Social Concepts of Money. By Ann Brewington, 197; New Problems in Business Education, By Louis A. Rice, 201; NRA Implications for Business Education. By Herbert A. Tonne, 203; Modern Office Practice. By Peter L. Agnew, 206; Needed Economics in Business Education. By Frederick C. Nichols, 209; Administrative Problems of Business Education. By William R. Odell, 212.
Butterfield, E. W. The New Fifty Per Cent, 265.

Carpenter, Harry A. Teaching Science by Radio, 421.
Carrothers, George E. Curriculum of Small High School Adapted to Pupil and Community Needs, 479.
Cassel, Carl L. On Apprend à Lire, 555.
Character Education, Principles of. By Daniel P. Eginton, 298.
Character Training in Junior High School. By Lofter Bjarnason, 167.
Citizenship, Teachers and. By Ambrose L. Suhrie, 117.
Civic Affairs, The Teacher as a Factor in. By George Hook, 538.
Clem, Orlie M., and Lazarus, Frank W. Practices and Procedures, 278.
Cline, E. C. The Adolescent Environment, 374.
Community, Relation of the School to Other Educative Forces in. By H. W. Hurt, 526.
Community-Service Groups, Interreiationship of. By Jay B. Nash, 521.
Composition, Keeping Com in. By William L. Fink, 434.
Coöperative Project, A. By Cora C. Allerton, 370.
Cory, F. Byron. Curio Club, 306.
Counsellor, Work of the Class. By Richard D. Allen, 12.
Cox, P. W. L. Editorials, 3, 5, 69, 70.
Curio Club. By F. Byron Cory, 306.
Curriculum, Dare Students Build the? By Dora Willson and E. L. Terman, 176.
Cushman, C. L. Dealing with Controversial Topics, 94.

Delinquents, Who Are the? By Arthur V. Lashly, 391.
Democracy Through Education. By James T. Whittlesey, 536.
DeWitt, S. A. The Newspapers: Instruments of Propaganda or of Education, 368.
Diefendorf, J. W. Study Habits for High-School Pupils, 494.
Discipline Without Punishment, Better. By Frank Risley Kennell, 221.
Duff, John C. Editorial, 4.
Dunham, Fred S. Recent Procedures in the Teaching of Latin, 408.

Economies in the High-School Program. By H. T. Steeper, 559.
Editorials. By P. W. L. Cox, 3, 5, 69, 70; by John C. Duff, 4; by Helen Halter, 72; by Forrest E. Long, 131, 259, 451; by Paul S. Lomax, 195; by Fred J. Weersing, 323; by Earl R. Gabler, 324; by Arthur D. Whitman, 387; by R. Emerson Langfitt, 452; by Charles F. Allen, 515.
Eginton, Daniel P. Principles of Character Education, 298.
Engle, T. L. A Comparison of Marks Assigned by Men and Women Teachers, 219.
Examination, The. By Frank M. Pelton, 233.
Experimental Classification in Junior High School. By C. P. Finger, 558.
Extracurricular Activities, A Survey of. By Robert W. Frederick and Ione Kindade, 224.
Extracurricular Program, Littleburg Solves for "X" in Her. By S. Joe Williams, 490.

Faust, Ralph M. Pupil Self-Direction, 51.
Ferriss, Emery N. Curriculum Trends and Problems in the Rural High School, 458.
Finger, C. P. Experimental Classification in Junior High School, 558.
Fink, William L. Keeping Com in Composition, 434.
Foley, R. H. Pupil Participation, 45.
Foreign-Language Program, A. By Robert W. Frederick and Virginia B. Smith, 153.

XUM

Frederick, Robert W., and Kindade, Ione. A Survey of Extracurricular Activities, 224.
—— ——, and Smith, Virginia B. A Foreign-Language Program, 153.
Funk, Margaret S., and Beatty, Willard W. Relating Sex to Life, 235.

Gabler, Earl R. Creative Measurement, 334.
—— ——. Editorial, 324.
Gaumnitz, W. H. Small High Schools in the National Survey of Secondary Education, 464.
Geometry Comes Alive. By R. H. Shanks, 428.
Graybeal, Lyman. Some Educative and Noneducative Aspects of the Small High School, 500.
Greece, The Glory—and Fun—That Was. By Tom Prideaux, 284.
Greenan, John T. Controversial Subjects in the Curriculum, 98.
Greig, R. A. A Double-Period, Two-Subject Program for High-School Students, 227.
Guidance: Interpretation of Guidance. By Leonard V. Koos, 8: Work of the Class Counsellor. By Richard D. Allen, 12; Guidance Programs in Secondary Schools. By William C. Reavis, 19; Pasadena Junior College Program. By William M. Proctor, 28; College-Freshman Vocational Selections. By Robert C. Woellner, 33; Guidance in the Junior College. By A. J. Brumbaugh, 36; Needed Research in Guidance. By Grayson N. Kefauver and Harold C. Hand, 40; Guidance Period. By Asa C. Tenney, 56.
Guidance—a Science or a Philosophy? By Paul L. Boynton, 517.

Halter, Helen. Editorial, 72.
Halter, Helen, and Bills, Goldena. Social Science and Mathematics Get Together, 110.
Hamilton, Alma Grace. Individualization in History Classes, 291.
Hand, Harold C., and Kefauver, Grayson N., Needed Research in Guidance, 40.
Hardin, V. M. Facing a Vital Problem, 43.
Harshman, Floyd E. Editor, Others Say, 187, 250, 314, 381, 443, 508, 563.
Hathaway, George West. The Sound Motion Picture in the Junior High School, 286.
Hawkins, V. D. A High-School Cabin, 125.
Haydis, Hyman. The Schoolman and the Crisis in Education, 532.
High-School Principal to His Faculty, The. By H. H. Ryan, 351.
High Schools, Small: What is a Good Secondary School? By Thomas H. Briggs, 454; Curriculum Trends and Problems in the Rural High School. By Emery N. Ferriss, 458; Small High Schools in the National Survey of Secondary Education. By W. H. Gaumnitz, 464; The Small Six-Year Secondary School. By F. T. Spaulding, 469; The Small School's Program of Studies and the Varying Needs of Pupils. By Harrison H. Van Cott, 475; Curriculum of Small High School Adapted to Pupil and Community Needs. By George E. Carrothers, 479; Organization of the Small High School. By J. Henry Highsmith, 482; A Curriculum for the Three-Teacher, Six-Year High School. By Knute O. Broady, 486; Littleburg Solves for "X" in Her Extracurricular Program. By S. Joe Williams, 490; Study Habits for High-School Pupils. By J. W. Diefendorf, 494; High Schools as Community Educational Centers. By L. R. Johnston, 497; Some Educative and Noneducative Aspects of the Small High School. By Lyman Graybeal, 500; Enlarging the Program of Studies in Small High Schools. By J. L. B. Buck, 503.
High-School Students. A Double Period, Two-subject Program for. By R. A. Greig, 227.
Highsmith, J. Henry. Organization of the Small High School, 482.
Historic Characters Enter Our Classroom. By Edith L. Hoyle, 417.
History Begins at Home. By Merle Lamborn, 552.
History Classes, Individualization in. By Alma Grace Hamilton, 291.
Hockett, John A. Social Studies in a Confused World, 75.
Hodgdon, Daniel R. School Law—A Social Philosophy, 229.
—— ——. Editor, School Law Review, 312, 379, 441, 506, 562.
Hook, George. The Teacher as a Factor in Civic Affairs, 538.
Hoyle, Edith L. Historic Characters Enter Our Classroom, 417.
Hull, J. D. Adjusting the High-School Athletic Program, 540.
Hurt, H. W. Relation of the School to Other Educative Forces in the Community, 526.
Huus, Randolph O. The Power of Current Realities, 102.

Intelligence in the New Era. By Lloyd N. Yepsen, 347.

Jeffery, Eber. The Bonus Expeditionary Forces, 78.
Johnston, L. R. High Schools as Community Educational Centers, 497.
Junior College, Guidance in the. By A. J. Brumbaugh, 36.
Junior College Program, The Pasadena. By William M. Proctor, 28.
Junior-High-School Conference, 325, 386.
Junior-High-School Grouping. By John H. Kingsley, 48.
Junior High School and Home Membership. By Helen Watson Pierce, 241.

Kefauver, Grayson N., and Hand, Harold C. Needed Research in Guidance, 40.
Kelso, Mary M. Job Plan Assists Social Adjustments, 144.
Kennell, Frank Risley. Better Discipline Without Punishment, 221.
Kindade, Ione, and Frederick, Robert. A Survey of Extracurricular Activities, 224.
Kingsley, John H. Junior-High-School Grouping, 48.
Knudsen, Charles W., and Smith, C. Currien. The Evaluation of Assignments, 394.
Koos, Leonard V. The Interpretation of Guidance, 8.
Krey, A. C. Dealing with Controversial Topics, 90.

Laidler, Harry W. The League for Industrial Democracy, 105.
Lamborn, Merle. History Begins at Home, 552.
Langfitt, R. Emerson. Editorial, 452.
Language, Recognition of Usage in Teaching of. By Fred G. Walcott, 273.
Lashly, Arthur V. Who Are the Delinquents? 391.
Latin Lives and Serves. By Kathryn Ormiston Lundy, 548.

Latin, Recent Procedures in the Teaching of. By Fred S. Dunham, 408.
Law—A Social Philosophy, School. By Daniel R. Hodgdon, 229.
Lazarus, Frank W., and Clem, Orlie M. Practices and Procedures, 278.
League for Industrial Democracy, The. By Harry W. Laidler, 105.
Lefever, D. Welty. Adapting Measurement to the Changes in Secondary Education, 330.
Lindeman, Eduard C. Problems of Relationship in Secondary Education, 388.
Literature, Pictorial Representation of. By Charles W. Rossier, 412.
Lomax, Paul S. Editorial, 195.
Long, Forrest E. Editorials, 131, 259, 451.
Lundy, Kathryn Ormiston. Latin Lives and Serves, 548.

McAndrew, William. Is There a Place for Controversy? 86.
—— ——. Editor, Straws in the Educational Wind, 58, 186.
Mark, George E. Use of the Newspaper, 310.
Marks Assigned by Men and Women Teachers, A Comparison of. By T. L. Engle, 219.
Martinson, J. W. Coöperation and Orientation, 261.
Masters, H. B. A Teacher-Training Program, 239.
Measurements: The Program of Measurement in the Secondary Schools of Providence. By Richard D. Allen, 326; Adapting Measurement to the Changes in Secondary Education. By D. Welty Lefever, 330; Creative Measurement. By Earl R. Gabler, 334; Tests and Student Guidance. By Winston B. Stephens, 341; Tests and Measurements in Russian Education. By S. Jean Wolf, 355.
Merritt Business School, The. By R. E. Rutledge, 545.

Nash, Jay B. Interrelationship of Community-Service Groups, 521.
National Survey of Secondary Education, Small High School in the. By W. H. Gaumnitz, 464.
Negro Athlete (poem). By Gerald Raftery, 375.
New Fifty Per Cent, The. By E. W. Butterfield, 265.
Newlon, Jesse H. Need for New Social-Science Materials, 73.
Newspaper, Use of the. By George E. Mark, 310.
Newspapers: Instruments of Propaganda or of Education, The. By S. A. DeWitt, 368.
Nichols, Frederick G. Needed Economies in Business Education, 209.
NRA Implications for Business Education. By Herbert A. Tonne, 203.

Odell, William R. Administrative Problems of Business Education, 212.
Of Reverence (poem), 297.
On Apprend à Lire. By Carl L. Cassel, 555.
Orientation, Coöperation and. By J. M. Martinson, 261.
Others Say. Edited by Floyd E. Harshman, 187, 250, 314, 381, 443, 508, 563.

Pan-Americana. By Norman H. Whitehead, 172.
Patry, Frederick L. Psychiatry and the Junior High School, 157.
Pelton, Frank M. The Examination, 233.
Pfeffer, Billy. How My Junior High School Helped Me, 149.
Pierce, Helen Watson. Junior High School and Home Membership, 241.
Practices and Procedures. By Orlie M. Clem and Frank W. Lazarus, 278.
Prideaux, Tom. The Glory—and Fun—That Was Greece, 284.
Problem Boy (poem), 283.
Problem, Facing a Vital. By V. M. Hardin, 43.
Problems, High School: I Am an Athlete. By Kenneth Brosne, 133; Admission to Dartmouth College. By E. Gordon Bill, 139; Job Plan Assists Social Adjustments. By Mary M. Kelso, 144; How My Junior High School Helped Me. By Billy Pfeffer, 149; Scholarship and Fundamentals. By Ross N. Young, 151; A Foreign-Language Program. By Robert W. Frederick and Virginia B. Smith, 153; Survey of Adult Vocational Placement. By J. R. Shannon, 180.
Proctor, William M. The Pasadena Junior College Program, 28.
Psychiatry and the Junior High School. By Frederick L. Patry, 157.
Public-Minded Education. By Richard Welling, 107.
Pupil Participation. By R. H. Foley, 45.
Pupil Ranking of Subjects. By Russell R. Spafford, 400.

Radio, School. By Russell V. Burkhard, 543.
Raftery, Gerald. Negro Athlete (poem), 375.
—— ——. Tillie (poem), 378.
Reavis, William C. Guidance Programs in Secondary Schools, 19.
Research in Guidance, Needed. By Grayson N. Kefauver and Harold C. Hand, 40.
Rice, Louis A. New Problems in Business Education, 201.
Rossier, Charles W. Pictorial Representation of Literature, 412.
Rutledge, R. E. The Merritt Business School, 545.
Ryan, H. H. The High-School Principal to His Faculty, 351.

Scholarship and Fundamentals. By Ross N. Young, 151.
School Law Review. Edited by Daniel R. Hodgdon, 312, 379, 441, 506, 562.
Schoolman and the Crisis in Education, The. By Hyman Haydis, 532.
Science by Radio, Teaching. By Harry A. Carpenter, 421.
Secondary Education, Problems of Relationship in. By Eduard C. Lindeman, 388.
Self-Direction, Pupil. By Ralph M. Faust, 51.
Sex to Life, Relating. By Margaret S. Funk and Willard W. Beatty, 235.
Shanks, R. H. Geometry Comes Alive, 428.
Shannon, J. R. Survey of Adult Vocational Placement, 180.
Smith, C. Currien, and Knudsen, Charles W. The Evaluation of Assignments, 394.
Smith, Virginia B., and Frederick, Robert W. A Foreign-Language Program, 153.
Snyder, W. Harry. Getting Results from a High-School Class, 121.
Social Adjustments, Job Plan Assists. By Mary M. Kelso, 144.
Social Science, Controversial Topics in. By John L. Tildsley, 215.

Social Science and Mathematics Get Together. By Helen Halter and Goldena Bills, 110.
Social-Science Materials, Need for New. By Jesse H. Newlon, 73.
Social Studies, Newer Practices in the Teaching of. By J. Wayne Wrightstone, 362.
Social Studies: Need for New Social-Science Materials. By Jesse H. Newlon, 73; Social Studies in a Confused World. By John A. Hockett, 75; Bonus Expeditionary Forces. By Eber Jeffery, 78; Energy: Hope of a Cultural Democracy. By G. V. Bruce, 82; Is There a Place for Controversy? By William McAndrew, 86; Dealing with Controversial Topics. By A. C. Krey, 90; Dealing with Controversial Topics. By C. L. Cushman, 94; Controversial Subjects in the Curriculum. By John T. Greenan, 98; Power of Current Realities. By Randolph O. Huus, 102; League for Industrial Democracy. By Harry W. Laidler, 105; Public-Minded Education. By Richard Welling, 107; Social Science and Mathematics Get Together. By Helen Halter and Goldena Bills, 110; Teachers and Citizenship. By Ambrose L. Suhrie, 117; Getting Results from a High-School Class. By W. Harry Snyder, 121; A High-School Cabin. By V. D. Hawkins, 125.
Sound Motion Picture in the Junior High School, The. By George West Hathaway, 286.
Spafford, Russell R. Pupil Ranking of Subjects, 400.
Spaulding, F. T. The Small Six-Year Secondary School, 469.
Steeper, H. T. Economies in the High-School Program, 559.
Stephens, Winston B. Tests and Student Guidance, 341.
Stevens, James G. Activities for Unemployed Teachers, 376.
Straws in the Educational Wind. Edited by William McAndrew, 58, 186.
Study Habits for High-School Pupils. By J. W. Diefendorf, 494.
Suhrie, Ambrose L. Teachers and Citizenship, 117.

Teacher-Training Program, A. By H. B. Masters, 239.
Tenney, Asa C. The Guidance Period, 56.
Terman, E. L., and Willson, Dora. Dare Students Build the Curriculum? 176.
Tests and Measurements in Russian Education. By S. Jean Wolf, 355.
Tests and Student Guidance. By Winston B. Stephens, 341.
Tildsley, John L. Controversial Topics in Social Science, 215.
Tillie (poem). By Gerald Raftery, 378.
Tonne, Herbert A. NRA Implications for Business Education, 203.
Trustees, The Board of. By One of Them, 436.

Unemployed Teachers, Activities for. By James G. Stevens, 376.
Van Cott, Harrison H. The Small School's Program of Studies and the Varying Needs of Pupils, 475.
Vanderslice, H. R. The All-Year School, 294.
Vocational Placement, Survey of Adult. By J. R. Shannon, 180.
Vocational Selections, College-Freshman. By Robert C. Woellner, 33.

Walcott, Fred G. Recognition of Usage in Teaching of Language, 273.
Weersing, Fred J. Editorial, 323.
Welling, Richard. Public-Minded Education, 107.
Whitehead, Norman H. Pan-Americana, 172.
Whitman, Arthur D. Editorial, 387.
Whittlesey, James T. Democracy Through Education, 536.
Williams, S. Joe. Littleburg Solves for "X" in Her Extracurricular Program, 490.
Willson, Dora, and Terman, E. L. Dare Students Build the Curriculum? 176.
Woellner, Robert C. College-Freshman Vocational Selections, 33.
Wolf, S. Jean. Tests and Measurements in Russian Education, 355.
Wrightstone, J. Wayne. Newer Practices in the Teaching of Social Studies, 362.

Yepsen, Lloyd N. Intelligence in the New Era, 347.
Young, Ross N. Scholarship and Fundamentals, 151.

dents
ation.
Ste-
Social
siness
36.
James
Prof Pu-
J. R.
Rob-
Teach-
107. duca-
Her
dents
tional ssian
the Era,
ntals,

XUM